BRAND STORES

Brand experience at the point of sale
Brands are more than products. They are the stars at the point of sale and should be staged as such. With a brand store from decor metall, you give your brand image the right stage and create the best conditions for sustainable sales success. Because one thing is certain: In times of booming Internet trade, even well-established manufacturer brands have to break new ground in order to keep their image "up to date". Innovations and unusual ideas are required.
As a retail design specialist, decor metall creates brand stores, shop-in-shops and flagship stores for numerous sectors. Here your customers can fully immerse themselves in the world of your brand and experience quality and product promises up close.
