GENERAL CONTRACTOR - STRUCTURE CORP.
ARCHITECT - STEVE E. BLATZ ARCHITECT

An impressive 24-foot high storefront cladding in pure white milled Corian creates a classic, elegant face for the renovation of the Tiffany store at Yorkdale Shopping Centre. The design references the Art Deco styled entrance to the flagship store on 5th Avenue in NYC. The classic wheat leaf pattern used on the walls represents nature, which is an important inspiration of Tiffany design. Previously this iconic pattern has been created from carved glass, marble and stainless steel in other stores but this is the first time Tiffany has used a solid surface material.
