ENPOWER

Empowerment is about every woman knowing her strengths and owning them. It’s about believing in herself, no matter how the world looks at her. Having the confidence to take control of her life, being aware of who she is and what she is capable of. Empowerment is about being determined, confident, and fearless in the face of adversity. It’s about accepting herself for who she is and embracing the responsibility of empowering those around her.
The Empower Collection features modern positioning, body tone, and angles for natural, high-impact postures that embody today’s physiques so brands can create a truly inclusive in-store experience that empowers everyone.
