REFILLED SCOOP BINS

As consumer demand pushes retailers to change, we have set out to help eradicate single use plastics from the food supply chain by offering sustainable retail innovations. We work with retailers to help tackle the rising waste packaging problem with our new REFILLED collection.

- Products are naturally stock rotated through use to eliminate packaging and food waste
- Made from BPA-Free PVC which is certified safe for food storage
- Available in two sizes which are suitable for shelving with no fixings required
