

IDX CORPORATION

SUNTRUST PARK

idX was hired to manufacture, deliver, and install architectural millwork throughout Atlanta's new MLB stadium. Areas include: suites, club boxes, bars, locker rooms, offices, concession areas, dugouts, and other public and back of house spaces.

The broad product mix required material and fabrication expertise ensuring all casework, paneling, wood trim, lockers, stone tops, quartz and solid surface tops, specialty metals, stainless steel countertops, wood doors and frames all appropriately suited the high-profile location.
