SPONSOR A STUDENT DESIGN CHALLENGE

PAVE's Student Design Challenges promote “real world” design experience for students interested in pursuing careers in the retail design industry. Students involved in retail planning, visual merchandising, interior design, architecture and branding programs create a dynamic design space for sponsors of the competitions. Hundreds of students participating in our competitions demonstrate the will to innovate, redesign, and reinvent actual retail design space for sponsors across the world. Looking for the best opportunity to support future designers? Need fresh ideas for your brand? Become a sponsor of the PAVE Student Design Competition or the RetailX Student Design Project!
