

PAVE

THE PAVE BASH

A RetailX tradition, this one-of-a-kind fundraiser for scholarships and educational programs benefits the next generation of retail designers. Join retail industry leaders, students and educators for an unforgettable evening of dancing, cocktails, hors d'oeurves and networking all in the name of student design!
These celebrations bring together hundreds of the leading players in the worlds of retail and design, offering the talent of tomorrow the opportunity to network with the giants of today. There's cocktails, there's music and there's delicious food! PAVE's events are symbolic of investment in the future, raising hundreds of thousands of dollars to be used to support the next generation of designers. We encourage you to explore the PAVE events of the past and get involved with those still to come.
All proceeds generated from the PAVE Bash support PAVE's educational programs.
