

PROPORTION LONDON

HARLEQUIN CHILDREN

Additions to the collection now include seated and standing infants, teenagers and a maternity figure, providing a complete family that is ideal for tapping into the booming childrenswear market and the growing trend for mini-me dressing.
Perfect for the lifestyle boutique or a dedicated kids store with add-on product, the Harlequin figures feature articulated arms to carry bags, play with toys and interact with one another. Posing and positioning the Children also gives great personality to bring a store or creative concept to life.
An array of finishes and colours plus optional makeup and wigs provide further personalisation opportunities. With their expressiveness, individuality and playfulness, Harlequin Children are a fun alternative to standard fibreglass options, designed with retail's current lifestyle focus in mind.
