MASSIMO DUTTI

689 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY
Massimo Dutti is located in the landmark-designated Elizabeth Arden Building. It is the first U.S. store for the company and its largest worldwide. The dramatic design features integrated marble floors, custom fabric wall coverings, custom lighting and engineering. High-end millwork was created overseas and installed by international specialists. The store also includes integrated telephone/data, security, sound and video systems. The store interior showcases a plush velvet couch with monogrammed pillows in the Men's Department and a life-size horse mannequin in the Women's Department. An integrated wood finish, with neutral "skin" tone finishes to the walls and soffited ceilings, create a warm and inviting interior.
